The Ashland Optimist Board met on Feb. 10th at the Optimist building with ten members in attendance. Barrett shared thank you notes from the Southern Boone Chamber of Commerce for the use of our building for their awards banquet, a thank you from the SoBoCo Community Teachers for our donation of hams for their Christmas Baskets and a thank you from the Detweiler Family for our donation to the 4-H Recognition Banquet.

The Board voted to donate $100 to Optimist International in memory of Kristi Savage Clarke, who was an important part of our club and passed away recently. The Board also voted to give $200 to the BSA Scouts-Great River Council and the Girl Scouts of the Heartland. The Board also voted to sponsor a boy and a girl to Boy State and Girl State again this year. In their final motion of business, the Board agreed to purchase Visa gift cards for the three winners of the Spooktacular that had not received their prizes yet.

The Board also talked about restarting Bingo around the beginning of April. Please contact Barrett Glascock at 573-268-0222 or bglascock@socket.net if you are interested in helping on the floor, in the Bingo window, or in the kitchen. We will be able to get back to normal sooner with more people helping out. Otherwise, we may look at holding Bingo every other week.
